

Benedictine University at Mesa Mesa Chamber of Commerce and Downtown Mesa Association

Tuition Discount Program

Mesa Chamber of Commerce and Downtown Mesa Association members are eligible to receive tuition discounts at Benedictine University at Mesa.

Twenty-five percent (25%) Benedictine University at Mesa traditional undergraduate programs tuition discount for employees and dependent children of Mesa Chamber of Commerce and Downtown Mesa Association members.

Traditional undergraduate courses must be taken at the Mesa branch campus.

This discount may not be combined with other prearranged student tuition discounts, such as institutional awards.

Students who qualify for this discount through both agencies are eligible for only one 25 percent discount.

Students must verify every academic year (June through May) that they are, or their employer is, a Mesa Chamber of Commerce or Downtown Mesa Association member (see reverse for form).

The Mesa Chamber of Commerce and Downtown Mesa Association Tuition Discount eligibility ceases for a student on the date when the eligible member is no longer employed by a Mesa Chamber of Commerce or Downtown Mesa Association member. If the member changes eligibility status during a term in which a tuition discount has been applied, the amount of the tuition discount will be prorated.

It is the responsibility of the employer to notify Benedictine University at Mesa of any employment changes.
